NOTE 1 - CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared by the Company without audit. In the opinion of management, all adj (which include only normal recurring adjustments) necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows 30, 2010, and for all periods presented herein, have been made.

Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting p generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. It is suggested that these condensed financial state read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's July 31, 2009 audited financial stateme results of operations for the periods ended April 30, 2010 and 2009 are not necessarily indicative of the operating results for a full year.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements are prepared using generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America applic going concern which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company yet established an ongoing source of revenues sufficient to cover its operating costs and allow it to continue as a going concern. The abil Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company obtaining adequate capital to fund operating losses until it profitable. If the Company is unable to obtain adequate capital, it could be forced to cease operations.

In order to continue as a going concern, the Company will need, among other things, additional capital resources. Management's plan is such resources for the Company by obtaining capital from management and significant shareholders sufficient to meet its minimal expenses and seeking equity and/or debt financing. However management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be succ accomplishing any of its plans.

The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plans describe preceding paragraph and eventually secure other sources of financing and attain profitable operations. The accompanying financial sta do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 3 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-02, Consolidation (Topic 810): Accounting and Reporting for Dec in Ownership of a Subsidiary. This amendment to Topic 810 clarifies, but does not change, the scope of current US GAAP. It clarif decrease in ownership provisions of Subtopic 810-10 and removes the potential conflict between guidance in that Subtopic anc derecognition and gain or loss recognition guidance that may exist in other US GAAP. An entity will be required to follow the an guidance beginning in the period that it first adopts FAS 160 (now included in Subtopic 810-10). For those entities that have already a FAS 160, the amendments are effective at the beginning of the first interim or annual reporting period ending on or after December 15, The amendments should be applied retrospectively to the first period that an entity adopted FAS 160. The Company does not exp provisions of ASU 2010-02 to have a material effect on the financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

In January 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-01, Equity (Topic 505): Accounting for Distributions to Shareh with Components of Stock and Cash (A Consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force). This amendment to Topic 505 clarifies th portion of a distribution to shareholders that allows them to elect to receive cash or stock with a limit on the amount of cash that distributed is not a stock dividend for purposes of applying Topics 505 and 260. Effective for interim and annual periods ending on c December 15, 2009, and would be applied on a retrospective basis. The Company does not expect the provisions of ASU 2010-01 to material effect on the financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

Additionally the shareholder advanced $4,000 in April 2010 for ongoing working capital requirements. The advances by the shareholder are non i bearing, unsecured and are to be repaid once the Company has sufficient cash resources to repay the advances.

NOTE 6 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On February 12, 2010 the Company entered into an agreement with Wingspan Foundation ("Wingspan") to invest in NABC SA M Company in Cote d'lvoire which provided for a due diligence period through March 15, 2010. Upon a visit to the site by the Company' President and geologist, Mr. David Hedderly-Smith the due diligence period was extended until May 15, 2010.

Based on the test results of the lab samples provided by Dr. Hedderly-Smith the Company determined that it was not in its best inter continue under the existing Letter Agreement. Further, it turns out that the underlying entity, New Africa Business Corporation (NABC had its agreement with Wingspan was unable to provide the Company with additional geologic data for our internal review during the ex diligence period. Consequently, the Company dropped its interest in the joint venture opportunity.

On May 24, 2010 the Company entered into a Letter of Intent with American Bio Fuels, LLC whereby the Company is to acquire all issued and outstanding shares of Able Energy New York ("Able").

Able is a retail distributor of home heating oil in New York state. The Company anticipates that once the acquisition of Able is com with adequate funding, will be able to expand its operations through acquisitions, organic growth and integration of distributors in cont and new markets.

The purchase is subject to a valuation of the business and two years audited financial statements through its year end of June 30, 2010 terms and determination of a price structure are anticipated to be completed by the end of the audit.

In accordance with SFAS 165 (ASC 855-10) Company management reviewed all material events through the date these financial state were submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission and there are no other material subsequent events to report other than reported.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements, other than purely historical information, including estimates, projections, statements relating to our business plans, objectives, and expected operating results, and the assumptions upon which those statements are based, are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements generally are identified by the words "believes," "project," "expects," "anticipates," "estimates," "intends," "strategy," "plan," "may," "will," "would," "will be," "will continue," "will likely result," and similar expressions. We intend such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe-harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are including this statement for purposes of complying with those safe-harbor provisions. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Our ability to predict results or the actual effect of future plans or strategies is inherently uncertain. Factors which could have a material adverse affect on our operations and future prospects on a consolidated basis include, but are not limited to: changes in economic conditions, legislative/regulatory changes, availability of capital, interest rates, competition, and generally accepted accounting principles. These risks and uncertainties should also be considered in evaluating forward-looking statements and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. We undertake no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Further information concerning our business, including additional factors that could materially affect our financial results, is included herein and in our other filings with the SEC.

Business Overview and Plan of Operations

We were incorporated on March 2, 2007, under the laws of the state of Nevada.

We have been in the business of mineral exploration and we formerly owned a mineral claim located in British Columbia. Following a recent change in control as reported on our Current Report on Form 8-K filed November 16, 2009, we have determined to re-focus our efforts in the area of precious metals mining. Specifically, we are now focusing on the evaluation and potential acquisition of small near term production gold mines and other mining claims that may be in or outside the United States, along with other opportunities that are viable operating companies that will have the ability to grow their operations with acquisitions/mergers.

On February 12, 2010, we entered into a letter agreement (entitled "Full Corporate Offer," hereinafter, the "Agreement") with Wingspan Foundation ("Wingspan"), a private Panama corporation. Under the Agreement, we had the opportunity to participate in joint venture ownership of the Kousassi-Datekro Manganese Mine in Cote d'Ivoire.

Our participation in the Kousassi-Datekro Manganese Mine venture was dependent upon the results of the due diligence conducted by our Vice President and geologist, Dr. Hedderly-Smith. Mr. Smith returned with samples of the ore which were tested in a laboratory to verify the presented manganese yields. Further, at the meeting in Cote d'Ivoire, we received a verbal 60 day extension to conduct our due diligence, through May 15, 2010.

Based on the test results of the lab samples provided by Dr. Hedderly-Smith, we determined that it was not in our best interests to continue under the existing Agreement. Further, the underlying entity, New Africa Business Corporation (NABC), that had its agreement with Wingspan was unable to provide us with additional geologic data for our internal review during the extended diligence period. Consequently, we had no choice but to drop our interest in the joint venture opportunity.

On May 22, 2010, we entered into a non-binding letter of intent with American Bio Fuels, LLC ("ABF") for the potential purchase of 100% of the issued and outstanding stock of ABF's wholly-owned subsidiary, Able Energy New York, Inc. ("Able NY"). Able NY is a retail distributor of home heating oil in New York. Under the letter of intent, Able NY has agreed to complete an audit of its financial statements for the fiscal years ending June 30, 2009 and June 30, 2010. During the pendency of the audit of Able NY's financial statements, the parties will be evaluating the business and expansion plans of Able NY and conducting other due diligence regarding the proposed acquisition.

It is contemplated that the purchase price for the proposed acquisition will be in the form of new common shares in Goldspan Resources, Inc. The purchase is subject to a valuation of the business and two years audited financial statements through Able NY's fiscal year ended June 30, 2010. Final terms and determination of a price structure are anticipated to be completed by the end of the audit.

We contemplate that, upon closing of the proposed acquisition, additional funding will be sought for the purpose of expanding the operations of Able NY through acquisitions, organic growth, and integration of distributors in contiguous and new markets.

Expected Changes In Number of Employees, Plant, and Equipment

Once our contemplated acquisition of Able Energy NY is complete, we expect that our plant, employees and equipment will all increase through the addition of that company's, land, warehouse, employees and equipment used in its fuel delivery operations. In addition, our plant, employees, and equipment may continue to grow though the consolidation of smaller operators as part of Able Energy NY's business plan. Additional details regarding potential increases in plant, employees and equipment will become available as our due diligence on the contemplated acquisition of Able Energy NY continues.

Results of Operations for the three and nine months ended April 30, 2010

We did not earn any revenues from inception on March 2, 2007 through the period ending April 30, 2010. We can provide no assurance that we will produce significant revenues in the future, or, if revenues are earned, that we will be profitable.

We incurred operating expenses of $192,695 and net losses in the amount of $191,695 from our inception on March 2, 2007 through the period ending April 30, 2010. We incurred operating expenses and net loss of $69,916 during the three months ended April 30, 2010, compared to operating expenses and a loss in the amount of $57,259 during the three months ended April 30, 2009.

We incurred operating expenses of $89,634, with a net loss in the amount of $88,634 during the nine months ended April 30, 2010, compared to operating expenses and a net loss in the amount of $60,742 during the nine months ended April 30, 2009. We negotiated a discount on outstanding professional fees in the amount of $1,000. The nine months of operations for the period ended April 30, 2010 included $1,000 that has been classified as extinguishment of debt.

Our operating expenses from inception through April 30, 2010 consisted of general and administrative expenses. Our losses are attributable to our operating expenses combined with a lack of any revenues during our current stage of development.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of April 30, 2010, we had cash of $1,599 and working capital of $300,087. Included in our current assets is $340,111 in prepaid expenses in the form of Company shares issued pursuant to a contract for investor relations services. We currently do not have any operations and we have no revenues. We are currently engaged in efforts to raise additional debt and/or equity capital, but we do not have any firm arrangements for financing and we may not be able to obtain financing when required, in the amount necessary to fund our contemplated operations, or on terms that are financially feasible.

As a result of the change in control effective November 12, 2009 there was a cancellation of attorney fees in the amount of $61,269 as a result of negotiations with a former shareholder and the attorney being paid out outside of the Company thereby relieving the Company of any further liability. In addition, there was a cancellation of a note in the amount of $4,000, owed to a former shareholder, as part of the consideration of the sale of his common shares. This has been classified as contributed capital.

We have not attained profitable operations and may be dependent upon obtaining financing to pursue a long-term business plan. For these reasons our auditors stated in their report that they have substantial doubt we will be able to continue as a going concern.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of April 30, 2010, there were no off balance sheet arrangements.

Going Concern

Our financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. Although we have working capital of $300,087 as of April 30, 2010, $340,111 of our current assets consists of prepaid investor relations expenses. We have an accumulated deficit of $191,695 since inception. Our ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon our ability to generate profitable operations in the future and/or to obtain the necessary financing to meet our obligations and repay our liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted with any certainty at this time. These factors raise substantial doubt that we will be able to continue as a going concern. Management plans to continue to provide for our capital needs by the issuance of common stock and related party advances.

Critical Accounting Policies

In December 2001, the SEC requested that all registrants list their most "critical accounting polices" in the Management Discussion and Analysis. The SEC indicated that a "critical accounting policy" is one which is both important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and results, and requires management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. We do not believe that any accounting policies fit this definition for our company.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-02, Consolidation (Topic 810): Accounting and Reporting for Decreases in Ownership of a Subsidiary. This amendment to Topic 810 clarifies, but does not change, the scope of current US GAAP. It clarifies the decrease in ownership provisions of Subtopic 810-10 and removes the potential conflict between guidance in that Subtopic and asset derecognition and gain or loss recognition guidance that may exist in other US GAAP. An entity will be required to follow the amended guidance beginning in the period that it first adopts FAS 160 (now included in Subtopic 810-10). For those entities that have already adopted FAS 160, the amendments are effective at the beginning of the first interim or annual reporting period ending on or after December 15, 2009. The amendments should be applied retrospectively to the first period that an entity adopted FAS 160. The Company does not expect the provisions of ASU 2010-02 to have a material effect on the financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

In January 2010, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2010-01, Equity (Topic 505): Accounting for Distributions to Shareholders with Components of Stock and Cash (A Consensus of the FASB Emerging Issues Task Force). This amendment to Topic 505 clarifies the stock portion of a distribution to shareholders that allows them to elect to receive cash or stock with a limit on the amount of cash that will be distributed is not a stock dividend for purposes of applying Topics 505 and 260. Effective for interim and annual periods ending on or after December 15, 2009, and would be applied on a retrospective basis. The Company does not expect the provisions of ASU 2010-01 to have a material effect on the financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

A smaller reporting company is not required to provide the information required by this Item.

Item 4T. Controls and Procedures

We carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of April 30, 2010. This evaluation was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, Mr. John Baird and Mr. Leon Caldwell, respectively. Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of April 30, 2010, our disclosure controls and procedures are effective. There have been no changes in our internal controls over financial reporting during the quarter ended April 30, 2010.

Disclosure controls and procedures are controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed or submitted under the Exchange Act are recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our reports filed under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Limitations on the Effectiveness of Internal Controls

Our management does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal control over financial reporting will necessarily prevent all fraud and material error. Our disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving our objectives and our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective at that reasonable assurance level. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people, or by management override of the internal control. The design of any system of controls also is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Over time, control may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

We are not a party to any pending legal proceeding. We are not aware of any pending legal proceeding to which any of our officers, directors, or any beneficial holders of 5% or more of our voting securities are adverse to us or have a material interest adverse to us.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

A smaller reporting company is not required to provide the information required by this Item.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

None

Item 3. Defaults upon Senior Securities

None

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

No matters have been submitted to our security holders for a vote, through the solicitation of proxies or otherwise, during the quarterly period ended April 30, 2010.

Item 5. Other Information

The Company has received short term advances from a shareholder totaling $17,025. These advances have been made to cover operating costs until the Company can generate its own cash flow. These advances are non interest bearing and will be repaid to the shareholder when the Company has sufficient capital to repay them.
